

Practical Nursing

Notes:

1. Positive Placement is defined as a student in the military or employed or continuing education.
2. There are only three years shown for Certification data because in FY-14, we defined those certifications we wanted to track as being state and/or national industry endorsed and proctored by other than the instructor or considered secure.